General/Family Practitioners

Follow the questions in this chart to determine if you may be eligible for full or provisional registration to practise in British Columbia.

You are not eligible for registration in British Columbia

- Do you have a medical degree from an acceptable medical school?
  - Y
  - N

- Have you completed the MCC Evaluating Examination (unless specifically exempted by the MCC)?
  - Y
  - N

- Have you successfully completed a minimum of two years of accredited postgraduate training in a foreign jurisdiction recognized by the CFPC for the award of certification without examination that was comprised of a basic core of 44 weeks (8 weeks in each of medicine, surgery, obstetrics/gynecology, and pediatrics, and 4 weeks in each of psychiatry, emergency medicine and general/family practice)?
  - Y
  - N

- Have you undergone an assessment of competency in a Canadian province or territory?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you able to provide a letter from the Ministry of Health or the faculty of medicine, UBC requesting your registration and identifying a sponsor?
  - Y
  - N

You may be eligible for full registration

- Are you legally entitled to work in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Did you complete postgraduate training between 1993 and July 1, 2010 and (i) successfully complete two years of accredited postgraduate training that was comprised of a basic core of 44 weeks (8 weeks in each of medicine, surgery, obstetrics/gynecology, and pediatrics, and 4 weeks in each of psychiatry, emergency medicine and general/family practice) and (ii) complete at least one year in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Were you registered in the provisional class on or before June 1, 2009 and completed five years of general/family practice in BC and successfully completed an assessment of competency?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you legally entitled to work in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Do you have a supervisor who is registered in the full class and practising as a general/family practitioner?
  - Y
  - N

You may be eligible for provisional registration

- Did you graduate from a Canadian medical school in 1992 or earlier, and successfully complete a one-year internship in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Did you obtain CFPC certification?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you a licentiate of the MCC or have you successfully completed US medical licensing exams?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you a Canadian citizen or permanent resident status?
  - Y
  - N

- Do you have a Canadian citizenship or permanent resident status?
  - Y
  - N

- Have you obtained CFPC certification?
  - Y
  - N

- Have you completed a general/family medicine program in Canada after July 1, 2013 (but not yet passed the CFPC examination) and are able to provide a recommendation from the program director and chairperson of the department of family medicine, attesting to your competence and successful completion of all program requirements?
  - Y
  - N

- Did you graduate from a Canadian medical school in 1992 or earlier, and successfully complete a one-year internship in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Did you complete postgraduate training between 1993 and July 1, 2010 and (i) successfully complete two years of accredited postgraduate training that was comprised of a basic core of 44 weeks (8 weeks in each of medicine, surgery, obstetrics/gynecology, and pediatrics, and 4 weeks in each of psychiatry, emergency medicine and general/family practice) and (ii) complete at least one year in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Were you registered in the provisional class on or before June 1, 2009 and completed five years of general/family practice in BC and successfully completed an assessment of competency?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you legally entitled to work in Canada?
  - Y
  - N

- Do you have a supervisor who is registered in the full class and practising as a general/family practitioner?
  - Y
  - N

- Are you able to provide a letter from the Ministry of Health or the faculty of medicine, UBC requesting your registration and identifying a sponsor?
  - Y
  - N

- You are not eligible for registration in British Columbia

COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF BC
www.cpsbc.ca