Serving the public through excellence and professionalism in medical practice

MEDIA RELEASE – September 8, 2014

Dr. McLOUGHLIN, Martin Gale

Vancouver, BC

When reporting this release, please provide the name and location of the physician in full in order to avoid confusion with any other physician who may have a similar name or initials.

VANCOUVER, BC: Dr. Martin Gale McLoughlin, a retired urologist, has admitted to creating medical records in a patient's chart during the investigation of a complaint, and significantly after the completion of the patient's treatment. He admitted that the creation of such records constitutes professional misconduct.

Following the issuance of a disciplinary citation, Dr. McLoughlin consented to the following disposition by the College:

- (a) Dr. McLoughlin will be formally reprimanded; and
- (b) Dr. McLoughlin must demonstrate to the College that he is competent and fit to practise medicine should he ever seek to reapply for registration.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons is the licensing and regulatory body for all physicians and surgeons in the province. Governed by provincial legislation, the College's role is to protect the public by establishing, monitoring and enforcing high standards of qualification and ethical practice across the province.
